Commissions from Issuers of Financial Products

Accountants Private Advice may receive commissions from life insurance companies when a life insurance product is recommended to you. These commissions can vary depending on the product issuer and type of product.

On all commission arrangements where the commission in the first year is greater than that payable in later years, the maximum upfront (year 1) commission is 66% and the maximum ongoing (years 2+) commission is 22% (inclusive of GST). Where upfront and ongoing commissions are the same, there is no legislated maximum however product providers generally pay up to 33%.

For example:

If your first year's premium was $500 and the initial commission was 66%, Akambo Pty Ltd will receive	$330 in the first year
If your premium for the second and subsequent years was $500 and the ongoing commission was 22%, Akambo Pty Ltd will receive	$110 per annum

For insurance products purchased prior to 1 January 2018, we may continue to be paid commissions in the same manner as what would have previously been advised to you at the time of obtaining the product(s).

These commissions are paid by the insurance company and are not an additional cost to you.

All fees will be clearly stated and agreed with you in the Statement of Advice.
